Financial Fundamentals

3 hrs CE, Course #32358

$30

In today's information age there is a lot of confusion regarding wealth. As a self-employed individual, a real estate professional has different investment options available to them. In this informative training, the real estate professional will learn to evaluate their current financial situation and become educated on personal finance based on how their income is earned. Attendees will learn how actions today affect wealth in the future and how to proactively prepare for a solid retirement
